TOUCHES OF LUXURY

By Sylvie Peron

Plum & Ivory cashmere

These exclusive cashmere travel accessories have proved very popular since they were launched in 2010. They are owned by the affluent and coveted by many. Attention to detail, handmade by master craftsmen using only the finest quality cashmere, this is pure practical luxury.

Martelé collection

Vodka, water or wine, all taste better from a Robbe & Berking silver drinking vessel. The handworked hammering technique makes each work unique. Enjoy a brilliant drink!

Reversible tote

'Bregançon' is a reversible leather tote bag by Moreau, the Parisian luxury luggage brand, and is part of the French House's spring/summer collection 2017. Featuring inside or outside, the print originally used on suitcases and inspired by the minimalistic effects of the interlaces of a wicker basket.

Totor

French artist Stéphane Bolongaro developed strong ties with two masters of 'Ecole de Nice', Arman and Sosno. His work is auctioned worldwide. 'Totor', a three-metre-high sculpture inspired by his mother's Jack Russell now stands in front of the City Hall, North Miami Beach, Florida.

Christie's

On 18 May Christie's London will present 'The Collection of The late Lord Weidenfeld GBE: A Life of Ideals and Ideas', an auction offering insight into the private world of a public man. The sale includes this large Chinese blue and white baluster vase mounted as a table lamp.

Leather Tray

Foglizzo's 'Tableware' collection of handmade leather accessories help set a simple and elegant table on board a private jet. The 'Atelier' turns each object into an artwork, emphasising the uniqueness and prestige of leather products.
